

- 1 The rationale for minimally invasive thoracic surgery
- 2 The history and evolution of minimally invasive thoracic surgery
- 3 Establishing a minimally invasive thoracic surgery program
- 4 Anesthetic considerations
- 5 Clinical pathways in minimally invasive thoracic surgery
- 6 Patient preparation and port positioning
- 6 VATS lobectomy
- 7 VATS mediastinal lymph node dissection
- 8 Thoracoscopic pneumonectomy
- 9 Thoracoscopic sleeve lobectomy
- 10 VATS en bloc chest wall resection
- 11 Segmental resections
- 12 Intra-operative complications and conversions
- 13 VATS for minor procedures
- 14 Emerging non-surgical techniques for volume reduction in emphysema
- 15 VATS for empyema thoracis
- 17 Video mediastinoscopy
- 16 VATS thymectomy
- 17 Pericardial window
- 20 Sympathetic nerve
- 18 First rib and thoracic outlet
- 19 Management of chylothorax
- 20 VATS plication of the diaphragm
- 21 Surgery for pectus excavatum
- 22 Robotic-assisted mediastinal surgery
- 23 Robotic-assisted lobectomy
- 24 Needlescopic and biportal VATS lobectomy
- 25 Single-port VATS lobectomy
- 26 Single-port VATS for benign disease
- 27 Non-intubated VATS
- 28 Endobronchial ultrasound
- 29 Electromagnetic navigation bronchoscopy
- 30 Air leak and chest drain management
- 31 Pleuroscopy